

SESSION 5

Ethical Risks in the “New” Workplace

Biography

Elizabeth Simon is the Vice President of Compliance at FirstKey Homes, a single-family home rental company based in Atlanta, GA. She is responsible for developing, implementing and monitoring compliance initiatives to ensure FirstKey Homes' work activities are compliant with all laws and regulations. She reviews regulatory requirements with Legal team members and operationalizes practices for the broader company, establishes formalized policies and procedures, reporting channels, auditing mechanisms, and vendor management compliance, and leads training initiatives to ensure all employees understand and practice compliance practices.

Ms. Simon currently serves as the Immediate Past Chair of the Board of Directors for the Atlanta Compliance and Ethics (ACE) Roundtable, a Board Member at the Georgia Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (GACFE) and is a Regent Emeritus for the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (ACFE).

Ms. Simon is married and has four children. She is an avid marathon runner who has run a marathon in all 50 states.

Elizabeth Simon

Vice President, Compliance

FirstKey Homes

Elizabeth.Simon@coxinc.com